Most patients require full treatment sessions to allow two therapies to be used; e.g. remedial massage and acupuncture, or remedial massage and back & shoulder massage with oils for relaxation. Sometimes only one therapy is required, in which case short treatment sessions can be offered - this can be discussed during the free preliminary consultation.

Adjunctive treatments

Neuromuscular taping, qigong exercise therapy and dietary advice are offered in conjunction with the acupuncture and/or remedial massage, and there is normally no additional charge for these (a full treatment session is required).

Discounts

I can offer treatment at reduced rates to a limited number of patients who would otherwise find it difficult to afford treatment. I can also reduce my charges if frequent sessions are required over an extended period. Details of these are available on request.
